Reception in Infants' Parlors

Ends this evening. Many came Monday, enjoyed the sight and took away some of the gems of th stock. Yesterday crowds from opening 'till closing hour. Compliments came thick and fast. At this any pleasant things said of this magnificent display of the choicest creations of European and We intended that it should surrass the heretofore. We intend that the next shall surpass this if possible, but we don't just now see how it can. There isn't a piece of clothing or an infant's requisite from birth to five years of age that isn't here. Things that you won't see everywhere—that you can't see elsewhere in Washington. We selected them personally from the fashion centers of Paris, Vienna and London. The exhibition is instructive as well as interesting. Reception until 6 o'clock this evening.

chief of engineers of the United States Army, in about one month's time. At present the park is under the control of the purchasing commission, and as soon as a few questions relating to the compensation to be paid for certain roads within the park shall have been determined by the Supreme Court of the District there will be nothing WORLD'S FAIR RECEIVED MED. remaining to be done before the forms transfer of the park. These questions are Mr. R. Ross Perry of the commission to-day, within such a time as will permit the transfer to be made probably not later than the 15th of next month. Several thousand the 15th of next month. Several thousand dollars yet remain to the credit of the commission, $50,000 or more, and Mr. Perry explained that after paying the incidental expenses yet remaining unpaid the commission might have sufficient funds to purchase enough of tract 17, the Carroll estate, so as to throw the northwestern line of the park, which now lies to the south of Rock creek, a little higher up on the hill. The park boundaries now include Rock creek to the Maryland line, and it may be that the President will decline to approve of the proposed, additional purchase.

The Assessments of Bensts.

Sufficient funds will also have to be recommission.

Sufficient funds will also have to be reserved from out of the original approp tion to cover the expenses attending the assessment of benefits accruing to the adjacent real estate. This assessment will be made by the present park commission, and will be begun immediately after their transfer of the park to the permanent commission. The commission will give at least ten days' published notice of the time and place of their meeting, and will hear all persons interested. The court may revise, correct, amend and confirm the assessment in whole or in part, or order a new assessment in part shall hinder or delay confirmation of the residue or collection of the assessment thereon. Confirmation of any part of the assessment shall make the same a lien on the real estate assessed. The confirmed assessments shall be divided into four equal intallments, and may be paid in full or in yearly installments. In case of non-payment, the assessments shall be collected annually, as in case of delinquent real estate taxes.
